Many Psalms for Many Feelings

Praise, Celebration: Admiring God for who He is and what He has done. Often written for groups. Ex: Psalm 8, 93 and 145

Thanksgiving: Expressing appreciation to God for what He has done. Describing a past problem and the solution. Ex: Psalm 9 and 30

Lament: Brutally honest prayers about dire circumstances and appeals to God to intervene. Though at times hopeless, they always move towards God and trust in His character and power to help in times of need. Ex: Psalm 12, 13, and 42

Imprecatory: At times uncomfortable in their emphasis on vengeance, these psalms express honest anger about sin and injustice to God. Pleas to God for his intervention and justice. Ex: Psalm 137 and 139:19-22

Messianic: The psalmists looked towards the coming Messiah who would save the people. They emphasize the king as his coworker. We can praise Jesus for being our savior. Ex: Psalm 2 and 110

DISCUSS TOGETHER

Here are our discipleship questions for this week. Discuss these with your family or friends, or pray about them and think about them on your own, being open to God's response to your prayer.

- Read Psalm 69 and write a Response Prayer.
- Optional icebreaker: What kinds of people make you mad, and what would you like to see happen to them?
- How do imprecatory psalms (psalms that curse others) make you feel?
- Can you think of something that fits this description: the more you use it, the less you need it? How are imprecatory (curse) psalms like that?
- Describe the setting in which you typically have the most honest, unfiltered prayer time with God.

OUTDOOR WORSHIP THIS WEEK

Sunday morning at 10:45am those who wish to will gather together in our outdoor courtyard for worship again, weather permitting.

- Please remember to "bring your own everything," especially seating and shade. Check the weather forecast beforehand. A jacket may be advisable, and an umbrella can do double duty as personal shade or shelter in case of an unexpected shower.
- Being outdoors instead of in an enclosed space is intended to reduce the risk of viral spread. As per state and county guidelines, everyone age 2 and up will be required to wear masks and to distance at least six feet from non-household/social bubble members.
- Singing is again a part of our service at this time! Please note that per county guidelines we must all keep our masks on while singing, and must maintain distancing.
- We have individually prepackaged communion elements for all those attending, and gluten free bread will be on hand for those who need it.
- If you (or anyone you've had close contact with) have been experiencing any symptoms of illness, you MUST stay home until you and your family members or housemates are completely well again.

For those who choose to remain at home for any reason, we will continue to provide online worship services just like always at 10:45am. The most important thing is that we worship our Lord on Sundays, regardless of the location. Those of our church family who are not joining us at this time will be very greatly missed! We love you all and appreciate your faithful prayers and words of support.

ATTENTION PLEASE!

Let's all comply with current guidelines by wearing our masks properly (fully covering the nose and mouth), keeping at least six feet from all who aren't in our household, and washing our hands/using sanitizer as often as needed. Let's do our part when we meet to make it possible for us all to safely enjoy our times of worship together.

ONLINE WORSHIP HIGHLIGHTS FROM LAST WEEK, 3/7/21

If you missed any of last week's online service and want to view it, click the link to view on YouTube: <https://youtu.be/XcQudryONXU#t=0>
Here are some highlights from last week's service:

- In our pre-slide show we enjoyed hearing and seeing a Praise and Harmony rendition of Behold Our God, along with several announcements, including a teaser about our upcoming Resurrection Sunday activities.
- Thank you, Rachel M., for touching our hearts with your ASL translations as we sang worship songs based on psalms of enthronement, honoring our beloved God, King and Savior.
- Thank you to Roger R., who read Psalm 47 for us, and Rosie R. who read Psalm 29.
- Dave Y. led us in a communion reflection about Jesus as our true King and Savior.
- Jacob P. continued our series on Psalms by looking at psalms of enthronement, celebrating the goodness, justice, holiness, majesty, and ultimate worthiness of God as our one true and real King who deserves our praise, love, and loyalty. When we ask God to be our true king, we are choosing to die to ourselves and accept Him as the Lord of our lives - there's only room for one on the throne.

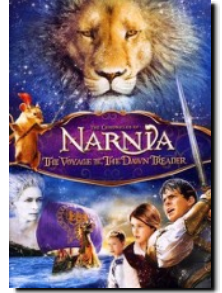

We appreciate everyone who helps with our online worship services in any way, and we're thankful for everyone who signs in to worship with us each week. We have people from many places who participate, from local residents to out-of-state friends and family, and even believers in other countries! We love to see each of your names and comments in the chat. It's very encouraging to know we are all connected this way, and are devoted to worshipping and serving our beloved Lord together! If you haven't yet tried logging on to our 10:45am services on Sundays, please come join us to worship (AND if you're local, this Sunday, 3/14, you may join us in our courtyard for outdoor worship if you wish - see page 1 for more info!)

TEEN ZOOM MOVIE NIGHT

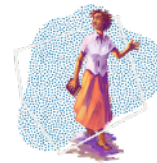

Friday, March 19 at 7pm

This week our movie night feature is the 2010 film, "The Chronicles of Narnia: Voyage of the Dawn Treader." In this film adaptation from the classic C.S. Lewis novel, Edmund and Lucy return to Narnia, with their annoying cousin, Eustace.

They join the new king of Narnia, Caspian, in his quest to rescue seven lost lords and to save Narnia from a corrupting evil that resides on a dark island. Each character is tested as they journey to the home of the great lion Aslan at the far end of the world (the Utter East). Bring your movie snacks and come chat with friends while you watch this gorgeous and meaningful adventure tale.

TEEN ZOOM DEVO NIGHT

Our Teen Devo will meet this Thursday, March 18 at 7pm.

Bring your Bible and come prepared to share in encouraging faith-based discussions as we continue exploring our Gospel series. Brittany will be logging in at 6:30pm for hangout time with those who may show up a little early.
